STADIUM GOODS

Is Stadium Goods Legit?

Rest assured, all Stadium Goods products are 100% authentic.

By Stadium Goods | December 20, 2022

It's been brought to our attention that some of the sneaker-buying community has a burning question that only we could answer definitively: Is Stadium Goods legit? The answer is a resounding YES.

When you shop at Stadium Goods, you shop from a business that was founded to be a place where the products we love could be bought and sold safely, with a premium on trust and authenticity. We're just as invested in the culture of sneakers and streetwear as you are, and our commitment to providing the highest quality products, services and customer support reflects that.

Our commitment to authenticity starts with our staff. The employees at Stadium Goods are the most passionate and knowledgeable in the industry, and possess a wealth of knowledge that in many cases goes beyond decades of experience.

Now let's talk about why Stadium Goods is legit in more specific terms.

Guaranteed Authenticity

In addition to our staff's unrivaled expertise, we also provide the most thorough inspection process in the sneaker reselling market. We physically inspect all of our inventory. Every last item.

Upon receiving a product, let's say a sneaker, for example, we examine material, stitching, and color by hand. Packaging is also inspected for authenticity. Once an item is verified and processed, it is held in our warehouses to ensure quality control and prompt delivery.

So, you're probably wondering about how we source our inventory, right? Simply put, the products we receive are brought to us by trusted suppliers. That's just another way we guarantee authenticity: we work with partners we have formed long lasting relationships with.

In addition to physical inspections by our staff and sourcing products from trusted partners, we employ a variety of technical methods to ensure our inventory's authenticity. As innovators in the marketplace, we are at the forefront of using emerging technologies to identify counterfeit products.

For Stadium Goods, sneakers and streetwear aren't just our business: they're our lifestyle. We understand that what you wear tells a story about who you are, where you've been, and even where you want to go in life. We know this because we've lived it and continue to live it. It goes back to what we said earlier: We're just as invested in the culture of sneakers and streetwear as you are, and our commitment to providing the highest quality products, services and customer support reflects that.

A Premium Experience

What distinguishes Stadium Goods from our competitors? It's simple: we hold our own inventory, which means our products are ready for shipping as soon as they're bought. Unlike our competitors, Stadium Goods is the only aftermarket that pre-authenticates its entire inventory. Since our products are in stock and ready to ship, it's our mission to get you your items quickly and seamlessly.

Our convenient shipping experience goes both ways. In the event you would like to return an item purchased at Stadium Goods, we provide a free return policy that's as easy to follow as our buying process. For full details on our return policies, please click HERE.
